

MAKE AN ADDITION TO STATE HOSPITAL

North Carolina Commission
Awards Contract for Four-Story Building.

CASES IN SUPREME COURT

A Number from the Tenth District to Be Heard This Week.
Large Travel on New Line.

RALEIGH, N. C., October 25.—The State Hospital Commission having in hand under legislative enactment enlargement of the capacity of the State hospital for the insane by expending $250,000 per year for the next four years in session here to-day, awarded the contract for the erection of an additional four-story building at the State Hospital here to accommodate 100 male patients. The contract is given to N. Underwood, of Durham, whose bid was $48,265.

All members of the board attended the meeting—Charles A. Webb, of Asheville; J. L. Weddington, of Charlotte; W. A. Erwin, of Durham; E. F. Aydtett, of Elizabeth City; Dr. J. W. Neill, of Hope Mills. No further action was taken as to the establishment of the colonies of epileptics and others authorized by the last Legislature.

Goes to Washington.
Governor Glenn came back from Goldsboro this afternoon and left on an evening train for Washington. He would make no statement as to his business at the national capital. It is presumed to have to do with the railroad rate litigation, the hearing in which will be resumed there Monday. In Goldsboro he conferred with ex-Governor Aycock and counsel for the State.

Argument on Appeals.
The argument of Ninth District appeals in the Supreme Court was concluded to-day, and Tenth District cases will be taken up next Tuesday in the following order: State vs. Carmon, in re. will of Beauchamp, Eames vs. Armstrong, Harrison vs. Telegraph Co., Beck vs. Railway, Morris vs. Scarborough, Co. vs. Express, Russell vs. Wade, Baldwin vs. Cash, Dobler & Merges vs. Varnar, Lantz vs. Hinson, Parrish vs. Railroad Co., Henderson vs. McLean, Logan vs. Hodges.

Trains are now operating regularly between Raleigh and Washington and Wilson, and the management of the road—the Norfolk and Southern—reports that the travel and the freight business are exceeding their most sanguine expectations.

Mr. T. K. Bruner, secretary to the State Board of Agriculture, and commissioner in charge of the immigration work of the Department of Agriculture, is reported to be steadily improving now. He has been desperately ill, suffering from a disordered liver, with complications.

Charter Amended.
An amendment to the charter of the Tidewater Construction Company, Wilmington, filed with the Secretary of State, provides for a decrease of the capital stock from $500,000 to $500,000. Van Leuven is president.

The new building and loan association, The People's Savings and Loan Association, has elected officers and perfected organization, the officers being: President, Hon. R. H. Battle, Secretary, B. W. Ray, Attorney, W. N. Jones. About 204 shares of stock are subscribed for.

The Inter-Collegian, the new Y. M. C. A. publication for the Agricultural and Mechanical College here, is out in its initial number, and makes a most creditable appearance. The editorial staff consists of: M. L. Eagle, editor-in-chief; F. H. Brown and W. H. Eaton, associate editors; J. P. Spoon, local editor; R. L. Pool, business manager; G. O. Sandler and W. S. Mayes, assistants. The paper is a most interesting number, and the publication gives promise of great usefulness.

A charter has been issued for a new Masonic lodge at Wentworth, Rockingham.

ITCHING TORTURE OF LITTLE BABY

Head and Face Covered With Awful
Itching Sores and Scabs—Would Scratch Until Blood Came—
Mother in Despair for Treatment
Did No Good—Dread Disease

YIELDED TO CUTICURA ALMOST IMMEDIATELY

"I was in despair about my baby. When he was about two months old his face and head were full of scabs and very itching sores with terrible running matter. I had to tie his little hands in bags for he used to make his face and head bleed. I had two or three doctors but they did not do any good. I was told to try Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment and I can say that they stopped the running matter immediately and soon after I had washed him twice he looked almost well, but I used about three cakes of Cuticura Soap and four or five boxes of Cuticura Ointment, containing the treatment for two weeks. I also used Cuticura Remedies for my other children and took Cuticura Resolvent myself to purify my milk for my baby whom I nursed while he suffered with that terrible itching and sores he had. Now I always have Cuticura Soap and Ointment in the house handy. I shall be glad if you want to publish this letter so that other sufferers will come to know what does the Cuticura Remedies can do. Mrs. Frances Rizzo, 1205 Dickinson St., Philadelphia, Penn., Nov. 8 and 13, 1906."

There will be ready for distribution in a few days, also, a bulletin by the secretary, giving an interesting outline of the purposes of the State Historical Commission, and the special work it now has underway. Either or both of these publications can be obtained by any citizen by addressing the request to Secretary R. D. W. Connor, Raleigh.

YOUNG SAILOR IS NOT SUSPECTED

Edgar Turnipsed Believed to Be Innocent of Stabbing His Mate, Fred Rich.

THE LATTER WILL RECOVER

Three Arrests, Two of Them
Barkeepers, Already Made,
and More May Follow.

Edgar Turnipsed, who was on Thursday night accused by his mate, Fred Rich, of having stabbed and robbed him, was yesterday relieved of all suspicion of the charge, and the police will use him only as a witness in the case, which is to be tried before Justice Crutchfield this morning.

Rich and Turnipsed went into house No. 111 Mayo Street, where they stayed about fifteen minutes. Then the two young seamen went to a bar-room on the corner of Mayo and Franklin Streets, where Rich had a few rounds of drinks, and where he became involved in a fight with three others. It is thought that he received his wound during this melee. It seems that he did not feel it at first, for he was badly doped, and did not recover from the effects of the concoction he drank until yesterday morning. He was much surprised to know that he had charged his mate with stabbing him, and said that he did not remember saying anything about it or remembering anything of the affair.

Johnson Arrested.
Joe Johnson, a young white man, was arrested last night on the suspicion of being implicated in the fight, and the police were also looking for the other two.

P. Pacini and Ben. M. Kidd, who have their places near Mayo and Franklin Streets, were also arrested, charged with selling intoxicating liquors to minors. The police believe they have a pretty clear case against the two barkeepers.

The district surrounding Mayo and Franklin Streets is said to be one of the worst in the city. Rowdies are in the habit of congregating on the corner, and the police deem it unsafe for a man to pass through them. Rich and Turnipsed are away on a fifteen-days' furlough from the United States torpedo boat destroyer Worden, based at Portsmouth, and they have been in a sea of trouble ever since they left the vessel. Robbed of all their money, Rich having been the treasurer of the two, they are stranded in the city, and Turnipsed is recovering. Speaking of his friend's charge that he had cut him, Turnipsed said that he would die for him, and that they have been like brothers ever since they knew each other.

TAYLOR CURTIS IS 42

In Honor of the Event His Associates
Gave Him a Jolly and Dinn.

John Taylor Wood Curtis, of The Times-Dispatch, was forty-two years old at 10 o'clock last night, and at that hour some of the editors and reporters gave him a birthday banquet, and more or less of a jolly on the side. Mayor Clinton A. Boyce, the politician, and the editor of the thing, were praising Mr. Curtis so that he stood on one foot, then on the other, and finally leaned against the wall, breathing hard. Mr. Curtis's reply showed that at oratory he was almost as good as some members of the city Council, but realizing that his associates preferred hot quill to hot air he kept in mind what is said to have happened at the Jamestown Exposition on Georgia Day, and "cut in short."

After the cigars had been passed around Mr. Curtis told the story of his life to the hum of the music from the linotype machines.
